

Breeze in

to a plush little space of comfort,
on the very outskirts of civilisation,
a cosy picture postcard,
with a sky-high waterfall,
and a wild, wooded neighbourhood.

Wake up

to a live orchestra of wild birds.

Rustle down

to touch the mist of falling spray.

Pause

at that sound, wind on leaves?
or a careless paw?
were you watching the forest?
or was she watching you?

Indulge

from a wide platter of delicacies, fresh catch, organic harvests,
and exotic local flavour.

Learn

from our travel desk
a tribesman upstream,
veer off the beaten path,
onto another,
expect the unexpected,
destination unknown.

above

a sea of stars.

beside

an ocean of fireflies.

between, your ears

tumbling water, hush...

and then, you look forward to another day in paradise.
